FORSYTH TALENT IN CLOVER.

The bookmakers got a scorching at Forsyth yesterday, for the public picked out the mud-larks with an accuracy that would have done credit to a professor of mathematics. To say that the track was heavy would be putting it mildly. Hugh Penny, who rode in the first race, said that it was like a lead pad. W. H. Roller's colt Thomas Paine in the two-year-old race was the only non-favorite to land. The new idea of making the horses break the first time the starting band was sprung, worked well.

Spendoline, a well backed favorite opened the ball by winning the first race easily from Helen Wren, after lying away to the stretch.

In the 2-year-old race, Ethel Farrell and Belle of Niles were most fancied. Tom Paine, a 12 to 1 shot jumped to the front soon after the start, and, ingeniously ridden by Pete Clay, kept there to the end, winning handily with Devoir, a 25 to 1 chance, second; and Belle of Niles a poor third. Provident, who was heavily played, finished third.

Elsie Ferguson, the favorite was away first in the five furlongs, but she was taken back and Fanny Hunt led, followed by Ethelleah. In the stretch Ethelleah was in front, but at the end of the stand Hyle brought up the favorite, and in a hard drive beat Fannie Hunt by a head with Ethelleah third.

In the mile race Lillian E., the favorite, never gave her backers any uneasiness, as she led from start to finish and won as she pleased from Eloroy, who in turn beat Fusilier. Gomor, well played, finished a bad fourth.

Hinda made the running in the first of the six furlong events, till into the stretch, where Montell, who had been gradually improving his position, went to the front and won easily, with Effie T. third, four lengths behind Hinda.

May Ashley, the favorite, rushed to the front at once in the second six furlongs, and was ten lengths in front after half a mile had been run, with Mary L. second. The favorite kept in front to the end, winning easily, but Mary L. only partly stalled off John Wilson's rush for the place.

Louis Ezell, who arrived from California Wednesday was at Forsyth yesterday. Among the horses he has brought with him are, Unity, ch. g. 3, by Rossington—Unite; Kamsin, br. g. 3, by Blazes—Miss Hall; Mr. Jingle, b. h. 5, by Mr. Pickwick—Miss Lizzie. With him came two of Mr. Corrigan's: Camelia, b. f. 2, by Longfellow—Miss Howard and Japonica, br. f. 3, by Longfellow—Hattie Harris. Then too, came Hankins & Johnson's Sutton, b. c. by Red Iron Lilly Wright, full brother to Diggs. Ezell expects ten more horses, principally 2-year-olds from St. Louis to-day under Jacob Cochran.

W. T. Beauchamp, president of the Terre Haute Fair Association witnessed the races at Forsyth yesterday from the judges stand. He has great confidence that the coming meeting at Terre Haute will be a success.

Joe Murphy is at home in St. Louis from San Francisco, and will be in Chicago to-day or tomorrow.

ASSIGNEE'S GOOD RACE.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 23.—The program lacked class to-day. Still a big crowd was out and the racing was good. The feature was a seven furlong dash between Assignee, George F. Smith, and David, the former winning on his gameness. Smith seemed to have the race below the eighth pole but weakened when it came to a sharp drive. Leo Lake made his first appearance but ran short. It was another good day for favorites, five winning. Another book dropped off to-day.

Answers to Queries.

J. B. City. D. A. Honig owned and raced Glockner. Jim Williams also owned the horse.

E. D. City. Pierre Lorillard's Iroquois won the Epon (Eng.) Derby in 1881: Duka of Westminster's Bend Or won the same race in 1880.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Before he left for the east Tom Griffin turned over Col. Wheeler, the Burns & Waterhouse colt he grabbed out of a California selling race, to his original stable.

Midas, Venus and Sport McAllister are no longer in the stable of Dow Williams. He has sold them yesterday to Joseph Tam and will retire from the turf, for the turf's benefit.

Young Heinrichs, the boy who figured so deeply in the "Little Pete" scandal at San Francisco, is here. So is Jerry Chorn, who was punished to the extent of expulsion for his misty share in it.

Rubber Neck, who won at Newport for Eugene Leigh Thursday, was sold last fall for $50. The Banker brought $80. and Adonis $25. Both won on the same day. All went at the Reischmann weeding out sale in Lexington last fall.

FORSYTH FORM.
